DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3-7 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: with respect to claim 1, in addition to other limitations in the claim, the prior art of record fails to teach, disclose or render obvious the applicant's invention as claimed, particularly the feature describing wherein the current supply and measuring circuit defines a threshold potential of the communication conductor at which the current substantially starts increasing from zero, the transition coding circuit and the current supply and measuring circuit being constructed so that the potential of the communication conductor remains at the thresholds or on a substantially zero current side of the threshold when the transition coding circuit drives the communication conductor in the second state.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
